

Language Through Colour

Language Through Colour is a visual language strategy that helps students understand and build sentences by using colour-coding.

Word classes are given their own colour to help students:

- Understand sentence structure
- Organise their thoughts before speaking or writing
- Learn grammar and word functions
- Improve both comprehension and expressive language
- Understand questions and how to answer them appropriately
- Encourages children to check and improve their own work

The Language Through Colour Categories

Main Question: Who?
Type of information:
People
Colour: Pink
Example: Who are the main characters in the story? - Harry Potter

Main Question: What?
Type of information:
Things
Colour: Orange
Example: What toy is this?
- Yoyo

Main Question: Where?
Type of information:
Place
Colour: Blue
Example: Where are they going? - Home

Main Question: When?
Type of information: Time
Colour: Brown
Example: When are we going to the park? - On Saturday

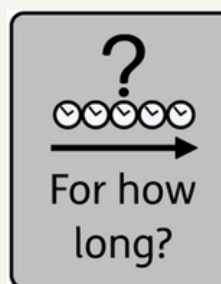

Main Question: What...doing?
Type of information:
Action
Colour: Yellow
Example: What are they doing? - Dancing

Main Question: What...like?
Type of information:
Description
Colour: Green
Example: What does the car look like? - Red and shiny

Main Question: Why?
Type of information:
Reasons
Colour: Purple
Example: Why are they happy? - Because they won a prize

Main Question: For how long?
Type of information:
Duration of action
Colour: Grey
Example: How long is the journey? - 4 hours